The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 448, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.491 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant enquired the petitioners regarding her daughter was forcibly taken by one Parameshwaran, who is the brother of the 1st petitioner and son of the 2nd petitioner, due to which, there arose a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. As a result, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and thereby caused injuries to her. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions as may be imposed by this Court. Hence he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
