The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 420 IPC and Sections 5 and 7(3) of Tamil Nadu Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998, in Crime No. 127 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of banned lottery tickets. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioner has been falsely roped in this case since the respondent suspects that the petitioner is the friend of A1. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of banned lottery tickets. He would further submit that based on the confession statement of the A1, this petitioner/A2 has been implicated in this case and there are four previous cases pending against him. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.2,000./- (Rupees Two Thousand only) as non refundable deposit to the credit of the Tamilnadu Advocate's Clerk's Association, Madras;
