Crl.O.P.No.13931 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148 447, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.192 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Jelaludin is that he hails from Chennai and he had purchased a property in Gummidipoondi in the year 2002. On 01.06.2023, when the defacto complainant was trying to fence in his property, the petitioners along with other accused trespassed into his property and demanded money. Since the defacto complainant refused the same, the accused abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him with stone and wooden log. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners stating that the petitioners by demanding mamool, trespassed into the property of the defacto complainant, abused him with filthy language and assaulted him with stone and wooden log due to which, he sustained injuries. However, he would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court
