The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/ Police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No. 148 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused persons, assaulted the de facto complainant and abused him in filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he would seek grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused persons have assaulted the de facto complainant and abused him in filthy language. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate. II at Jayankondam on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent/Police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
