A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/Police for the offences punishable under Sections 354(A)(1)(ii), 509, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No. 279 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant Premalatha is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant due to which, the petitioner harassed and scolded the defacto complainant using unparliamentary words. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given as against the petitioner. Hence, he would seek for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to previous enmity, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant due to which, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and harassed her. Hence, he vehemently opposed to the grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
