4. The learned Government Advocate for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners along with other accused, created forged documents of the property belongs to the defacto complainant and by impersonation, executed a partition deed and also executed power of attorney. Insofar as the 1st petitioner is concerned, he is the witness to the document namely partition deed. As far as the 2nd petitioner is concerned, he is the power holder. Hence, he prayed for grant of dismissal of the petition.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the nature and gravity of the offence committed by the petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
