The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 13.05.2023, in connection with Crime No.191 of 2023 registered for the offences under Sections 22(b) and 29(1) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act on the file of the respondent Police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police were on regular patrol, they found that the petitioner along with three other accused had sold the drugs and on search, 90 Nos of Nitrovet tablets were recovered from them and the fourth accused had run away from the scene of occurrence. Hence the case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the alleged contraband recovered from the petitioner is lesser than small quantity and the petitioner is in custody from 13.05.2023. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner along with three other accused had sold the drugs and on search, 90 Nos of Nitrovet tablets were recovered them, out of which, 30 tablets were recovered from this petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.15,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government. He further stated that the petitioner is also ready to abide by any other stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

8. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Stanley Medical College and Hospital, Chennai", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

9. Merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

10. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.15,000/- to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Stanley Medical College and Hospital, Chennai", this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

11. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
