(Judgment of the Court was made by R.SUBRAMANIAN, J.)

The present appeal is at the instance of the husband, challenging the order of interim maintenance granted by the Family Court at Rs.25,000/- per month.

2.We have heard Mr.K.Chandrakumar, learned counsel appearing for the appellant.

3.Mr.K.Chandrakumar, learned counsel appearing for the appellant would vehemently contend that the quantum is exorbitant, considering the fact that there are no children born out of the marriage and it is only for the wife. We are not in a position to agree with the learned contention made by the learned counsel for the appellant. Admittedly, the husband is employed in Qatar and he is a Diploma holder in Electronics and Electrical Engineering. Even in the affidavit, he has averred that he is earning about 2,500 Qatar Dirams. We are sure that it is not the actual figure.

4.Considering the designation and qualification of the appellant, we do not think, grant of Rs.25,000/- per month as interim maintenance could be said to be on the higher side. This Civil Miscellaneous Appeal therefore, fails and it is accordingly, dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
