The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 4(1)(a) and 24 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act in Crime No.671 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 20 bottles of liquor (each bottle contains 180 ml). Hence, the complaint was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that without prejudice, petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the Government for any welfare purpose and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 20 bottles of liquor (each bottle contains 180 ml). He would further submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of “The Dean/Medical Officer, Rajiv Gandhi Government General Hospital, Chennai, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
