Counter of the respondent not filed. However, the learned counsel for the respondent/defendant submitted that settlement talks are going on between the parties and the matter will be settled shortly.

2. The learned counsel for the applicants/plaintiffs pressed for some interim relief in the application filed for seeking an order of interim injunction restraining the respondent from alienating the applicants' alleged 1/3rd share in the suit schedule properties till the disposal of the suit. Even though the counter has not been filed, the learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the respondent is in abroad and he is not going to deal with the property anytime soon during the pendency of the suit.

3. In such a case, I do not feel that ordering the status quo will affect the interest of the respondent. Hence, the status quo order to be maintained till the disposal of the suit. Accordingly, this application is closed.
