registered for the offences under Sections 8(c) r/w, 20(b)(ii)(A), 22(b) of NDPS Act, 1985 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent were on regular patrol, they found that the petitioner along with other accused was found to be in possession of 250 grams of ganja and 155 Tydol tablet of 65 gms. Hence the case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner who is studying B.A Tamil Literature at Sir Theagaraya College, Chennai and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is under the custody from 23.05.2023. Thereby, he would seek bail to the petitioner.

4. . Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused was found to be in possession of 250 grams of ganja, 155 Tydol tablet. He also submitted that there is not previous case against him. Hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government. He further stated that the petitioner is also ready to abide by any other stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

7. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Rajiv Gandhi Government General Hospital, Chennai" without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
