of 2023. He further submitted that A1 has been arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that this Court very recently, taking into consideration that the petitioner under the guise of furnishing employment has cheated several persons and the amount involved to the tune of Rs.10 lakhs, the petition was dismissed on 01.06.2023. He further submit that as far as the other accused is concerned it is a bail and this petition is for anticipatory bail. Hence, he opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into account the nature of offence and also of the fact that the earlier application for anticipatory bail was dismissed and there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
