WEB COPY This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to direct the 2nd respondent herein not to harass the petitioner.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, on the basis of the complaint given by one Thangaraj, respondent police is unnecessarily harassing the petitioner. Therefore, present petition is filed.

3. In response, learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that, the said Thangaraj by mortgaging his property gave an amount of about Rs.30,55,000/- to the petitioner. Since, petitioner had not repaid the amount, Thangaraj gave a complaint. On the basis of this complaint, enquiry is pending.

4. It is the grievance of the petitioner that the respondent police has been harassing them under the guise of an enquiry/investigation and hence, has invoked the inherent powers of this Court under Section 482 of Cr.P.C.

5. In the present case in hand, the petitioner has complained of harassment by the police based on a complaint and seek for this Court's intervention by way of a direction. The term 'harassment' by itself has a very wide meaning and hence, what could be harassment to the petitioner may not be the same to the police officer.

6. In order to meet such situations, the following guidelines are issued:

a) While summoning any person named in the complaint or any witness to the incident complained of, the police officer shall summon such person through a summon/notice specifying a particular date and time for appearing before them for such an enquiry/investigation.

b) The respondent police is directed to serve summons mentioning the CSR number, date of complaint and the name of the complainant

c) The minutes of the enquiry shall be recorded in the general diary/station diary/daily diary of the police station.

d) The police officer shall refrain himself or herself from harassing
