A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.36 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity regarding money dispute, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him with hammer and thereby caused injuries to him and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent person and a false case has been foisted on account of previous enmity. He further submitted that the petitioner was granted anticipatory bail in Crl.M.P.No.684 of 2023 by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Kancheepuram and the same was lapsed due to non compliance of the condition. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready to surrender and to furnish the sureties. Hence he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that due to previous enmity regarding money dispute, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him with hammer and thereby caused injuries to him and also threatened him with dire consequences. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
