The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No. 281 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant/Chitra is that the petitioners have assaulted the mother-in-law of the third petitioner with iron rod, causing injuries to her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submit that due to matrimonial dispute, a false complaint has been given against the petitioners. He further submit that the pending of this anticipatory bail, the first petitioner has been arrested and in respect of first petitioner, this petition is dismissed as infructuous and as far as the second and third petitioners are concerned they are present at the scene of occurrence. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners have joined together and have assaulted the mother-in-law of the third petitioner and thereby, causing injuries to her. He further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submit that A1 is still in custody and the matter arises out of matrimonial dispute. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
