COMMON ORDER

The learned counsel for the 1st respondent had produced the records to show that the amounts due to the writ petitioner had already been settled. I had requested Mr.C.Venkatesan, learned counsel for the petitioners to check and verify the details and to get back. He has gone through the details yesterday and reports that the amounts have been duly settled. However, he made a plea that the Provident Fund amount and gratuity have not been settled. In case, the Provident Fund amount has not been settled, the petitioners are granted liberty to approach the appropriate Authorities to receive the same.
