The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.09 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and it is alleged that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this is the second application for anticipatory bail filed by the petitioner and the petitioner was earlier granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.11474 of 20223 vide Order dated 18.05.2023. However, due to personal reasons, they were unable to furnish the sureties and thereby, the earlier order has got lapsed and the present anticipatory bail has been filed.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner is now ready to execute the sureties before the trial Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
