The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 461 and 380 IPC in Crime No.145 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, petitioner is falsely implicated in this case in Crime No.145 of 2023 for the offences under Sections 461 and 380 IPC, on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused. He further submitted that, stolen properties had been recovered in this case. Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent, this petition is filed.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal side), opposes this petition, on the ground that, there are four accused in this case. The accused had broke open the shop of defacto complainant and committed theft of scrap materials worth Rs.30,000/- and cash worth Rs.10,000/- during the night hours on 09.05.2023. There is a CCTV footage available to show the involvement of the petitioner. He further submitted that, the scrap materials worth Rs.30,000/- was recovered and cash Rs.10,000/- has been spent by the accused. Thus, he prayed for dismissal of this petition.

4. In the light of the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) that stolen property had been recovered in this case and that the material part of the investigation might have been over by this time, this Court is of the view that, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvallur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
