The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 379 of I.P.C r/w 136(1) (a) Electricity Act, 2003, in Crime No.278 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 31.07.2022, one Sundar Rajan lodged a complaint before the respondent police stating that some electrical wire theft in Chithambakkam area and he found that 1800 meters of Electrical wire were missing. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is innocent person and he did not commit any offence as alleged by the respondent. He would further submit that the petitioner is being contract worker of the Electricity Department and he has no knowledge about the stolen of the wires. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner/A1 is committed the alleged offence and recovery has been made during the investigation and substantial part of the investigation is over. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that substantial part of the investigation is over, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruvallur on condition that the
