The petitioner/A4, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No.90 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant lodged a complaint against the petitioner and others. The petitioner and some persons came to the de-facto complainant's residence and the de-facto complainant was sitting in his house, attacked the de-facto complainant by using knife, causing bleeding injuries to the de-facto complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that he has not involved any offence as alleged by the respondent police. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Alandur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
