3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the interim bail was already granted to the petitioner on 05.01.2018. He has not co-operate for the trial in C.C.No.4678 of 2023 and hence Non-Bailable Warrant was issued against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, since the Non-Bailable-Warrant has already issued by the Competent Court to the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail
