4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that during a quarrel, the petitioner is alleged to have attacked the defacto complainant by hands and caused injury. He would further submit that there are no previous cases as against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
