Crl.O.P.No.17188 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/ A3 & A4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 354 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.101 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioners along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him and threatened him at knife point. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that a civil dispute between the petitioners' side and the defacto complainant's side has been decided in O.S.No.1937 of 2015 and the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to property dispute, the petitioners along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him and threatened him at knife point. He would further submit that no one has been injured in this case. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the parties involved in this case are father, sons, wife of the son and paramour, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
