The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.281 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.07.2023 at about 50.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant along with her family members were in their house, the 1st petitioner had removed the defacto complainant's land boundary stone. Immediately, when the defacto complainant's husband questioned the 1st petitioner, the petitioners abused them in filthy language and attacked them with crowbar and caused head injury and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to wordy quarrel arose between the defacto complainant's family members and the petitioners, the petitioners abused them in filthy language and assaulted them with crowbar and also threatened them with dire consequences. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the submission of the learned Government Advocate and also the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
