3.1. For, non-observing anticipatory bail conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Kallakurichi had cancelled the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner in Crl.O.P.No.11862 of 2022. This Court in Crl.O.P.No.15682 of

CrI.O.P.Nos.17554, 17555, 18123, 18128, 18171 and 18124 of 2023

2023 filed by the petitioner seeking bail in Crime No.268 of 2021 dismissed the petition, for the reason that, there are series of cases pending against the petitioner because of the non co-operation of the petitioner in Court proceedings by repeatedly filing petition under Section 317 of Cr.P.C. He has also not complied the anticipatory bail conditions. In such circumstances, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes grant of bail.

4. Considered the rival submissions and perused the records.

5. It is true that petitioner is implicated on the basis of the confessional statement of co-accused. The allegations against the petitioner is that, he is staying in Pondicherry and illegally manufacturing arrack and selling it in Tamil Nadu, through his men. In the said circumstances, this Court is of the view that, respondent police cannot rest with the confessional statement of the co-accused alone for implicating the petitioner. They must investigate into the alleged illegal manufacturing of arrack in Pondicherry.

5.1 As of now, considering the facts and circumstances of the cases

Crl.O.P.Nos.17554, 17555, 18123, 18128, 18171 and 18124 of 2023 that, petitioner has 27 cases registered against him and these cases are pending at various stages and petitioner did not observe the bail condition and that petitioner is in judicial custody from 10.07.2023, 10.07.2023, 30.06.2023, 30.06.2023, 10.07.2023 and 04.07.2023 and that investigations in these cases are not completed, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. However, it is made clear that, respondent police must collect incriminating materials against the petitioner, if available, apart from the confessional statement of the co-accused.

6. With the above direction, these Criminal Original Petitions are dismissed.
