Crl.O.P.No.17142 of 2023

G.CHANDRASEKHARAN. J.

The petitioners who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 324 & 506 (2) IPC, in Crime No.119 of 2017, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners that petitioners are innocent and they are falsely implicated in Crime No.119 of 2017, for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 324 & 506 (2) IPC. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

3.In response, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submitted that there is previous enmity between defacto complainant and the accused. On 30.07.2017, at about 8 p.m., when the defacto complainant was standing in Pottai Nagar bus stop, one Dineshbabu picked up quarrel with the defacto complainant's brother. When defacto complainant and his brother questioned the same, he attacked them with stick. Further, accused in this case came as a group and started attacking the defacto complainant and his brother. When defacto complainant, his sister Deepa and his brother Arunkumar and others intervened, accused had beaten all of them with hands, legs and sticks. As a result, they suffered simple injuries. Injured were treated and discharged from the hospital. However, he prayed for dismissal of this petition.

4.Considering the nature of the offences alleged against the petitioners and the fact that the injured were treated and discharged from the hospital, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not necessary and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Gudiyatham, Vellore, on condition that petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the
