Writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying to issue a writ of Mandamus directing the 2nd Respondent, who is the appointing authority for the post of PG Assistants as per Tamil Nadu Higher Secondary Education Service to issue appointment orders to the Petitioners who wrote the PG/TRB exam and attended the Certificate Verification pursuant to Notification No.10/2019 dated 12.06.2019 issued by the 3rd Respondent as PG Assistants against the estimated vacancies for the year 2019-20 and consequently forbear the 3rd Respondent from appointing candidates for the post of PG Assistants in School Education Department pursuant to Notification No.01/2021 dated 09.09.2021 before appointing the petitioners to the posts of PG Assistants pursuant to Notification No.10/2019 dated 12.06.2019 for the year 2019-20.

candidates in the said recruitment process.

3. It is the case of the petitioners that as per proceeding dated 08.01.2021, the Department of School Education, though 578 numbers of backlog vacancies were available, they were not included in the notification. If those backlog vacancies were included they would have been selected in the said Notification itself.

4. Heard both sides.

5. The learned senior counsel would submit that if the backlog vacancies (578) were included in the Notification No.10/2019, they would have been selected as PG Assistants in their respective subjects. Non-inclusion of such backlog vacancies had taken away the rights of the petitioners to be considered for appointment.

6. The learned Special Government Pleader would, on the other hand, contend that after the recruitment process to fill up the vacancies for the year 2018-19, vide Notification No.10/2019 dated 12.06.2019 was over and vacancies were filled up, at the instance of the State, recruitment process to fill up the vacancies for the year 2020-21 Advertisement No.01/2021 dated 09.09.2021 to fill up 2207 vacancies including 247 backlog vacancies was issued. That recruitment process was also over and no addendum was issued at the relevant point of time. The petitioners cannot as a matter of right seek for appointment.

7. The learned standing counsel for the TRB would submit that they are only a recruiting agency and they had no role in the matter of identifying the vacancies.

8. This court has considered the rival submissions and perused the records carefully.

9. Now, the petitioners seek appointment to the post of PG Assistants in various subjects in the Higher Secondary Schools as against 578 backlog vacancies which were estimated and available then, but were left to be included in the recruitment process conducted for the year 2019-20 through Notification No.10/2019 dated 12.06.2019. Admittedly, there had been a subsequent Notification issued on 09.09.2021 through Advertisement No.01/2021, whereunder 2207 including 247 backlog vacancies were sought to be filled up and the recruitment process was completed with the selection of the candidates for all such vacancies.

10. It is settled law that an aspirant does not have a vested right to the post for which he was admitted to sit for the examination. Having failed to get through in the examination, the petitioners cannot say that had the backlog vacancies been included in the recruitment process 2018-19 they would have been selected. It is for the government to notify the vacancies and send requisition for any post which has been identified for selection on the said post through the regular recruitment or special recruitment for backlog vacancies through TRB. The Supreme Court has consistently held that that recruitment of candidates in excess of the notified vacancies, will be violative of Articles 14 and 16 (1) of the Constitution. As such no direction can be given for appointment of any individual on any post which has not been notified nor requisitioned by the State for the said post.

11. In the case of Rakhi Ray v. High Court of Delhi, (2010) 2 SCC 637, the Supreme Court has held as under:-

“7. It is a settled legal proposition that vacancies cannot be filled up over and above the number of vacancies advertised as “the recruitment of the candidates in excess of the notified vacancies is a denial and deprivation of the constitutional right under Article 14 read with Article 16(1) of the Constitution”, of those persons who acquired eligibility for the post in question in accordance with the statutory rules subsequent to the date of notification of vacancies. Filling up the vacancies over the notified vacancies is neither permissible nor desirable, for the reason, that it amounts to “improper exercise of power and only in a rare and exceptional circumstance and in emergent situation, such a rule can be deviated from and such a deviation is permissible only after adopting policy decision based on some rationale”, otherwise the exercise would be arbitrary. Filling up of vacancies over the notified vacancies amounts to filling up of future vacancies and thus, is not permissible in law. (Vide Union of India v. Ishwar Singh Khatri [1992 Supp (3) SCC 84 : 1992 SCC (L&S) 999 : (1992) 21 ATC 851] , Gujarat State Dy. Executive Engineers' Assn. v. Banking Service Recruitment Board [(1996) 1 SCC 283 : 1996 SCC (L&S) 298 : (1996) 32 ATC 235 : AIR 1996 SC 976] .)

12. Recently in the case of Gajanan Babulal Bansode v. State of Maharashtra, (2021) 4 SCC 494, the Supreme Court has held

14. The impugned GR seeks to fill up double the number of vacancies which were notified for the LDCE-2016 by the Circular dated 27-6-2016. It is well-settled in service jurisprudence that the authority cannot fill up more than the notified number of vacancies advertised, as the recruitment of candidates in excess of the notified vacancies, would be violative of Articles 14 and 16(1) of the Constitution of India.

13. In the light of the settled legal position referred to above and the facts and circumstances of the case, no direction as prayed for by the petitioners in the writ petitions can be granted and the writ petitions deserve only to be dismissed.

In the result, the writ petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected WMPs are closed.
