The learned counsel for the applicants is not pressing this application (A. No.4162 of 2021), since the averments contained in the affidavit pertain to Covid-19 lock down. He seeks liberty of the applicants to file a fresh application in case, the applicants seek to file the same in the near future, if so desired. An endorsement to that effect has been made in the Court bundle. Accordingly, A. No.4162 of 2021 is dismissed as not pressed. However, liberty is granted to the applicants to file a fresh application in the near future in case, the applicants desire to file an application seeking for the very same relief.
