Crl.O.P.No.18634 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/A1 to A4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C, in Crime No.309 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant's daughter Padma married one Rajesh, the petitioner is the brother of the Rajesh. When the Padma's son Nagaraj took water to water the plants, the petitioner said water should not be taken here. At this juncture, the petitioner attacked the de-facto complainant with knife. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are falsely implicated in this case. The petitioners are brothers of the de-facto complainant son-in-law. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners attacked the de-facto complainant and the de-facto complainant sustained injury and the injured person is discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi on condition that the
