The petitioners/A1 and A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 353, 352 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.399 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 15.07.2023, the de-facto complainant working as a bus driver in TNSTC. The petitioners along with other accused riding in a two wheeler and wrongly restrained the Government Bus and abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and pulled the shirt and also threatened him. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the earlier anticipatory bail application was dismissed by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Tiruvarur in Crl.M.P.No.1244 of 2023 dated 21.07.2023. There is no injury caused to the de-facto complainant. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also the fact that there is no injury to the de-facto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif-Cum-Judicial Magistrate, Nannilam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
