The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 447 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No. 403 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 30.07.2023 at about 10.30 p.m., when the defacto complainant was participating in welfare activities on behalf of a political party, one Mani has interrupting the function and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused him in filthy language and assaulted him by using wooden log and hands and also threatened with dire consequences, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained simple injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely roped in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners also lodged a counter complaint against the defacto complainant in Crime No.402 of 2023. He would also submit that the petitioners are ready to abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police would submit that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with wooden logs and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
