Crl.O.P.No.18821 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/A1 to A4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 352, 323, 324, 354, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.237 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner along with other accused came into the defacto complainant's front of the house and trespassed the defacto complainant premises and damages the house hold articles. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and a case in counter in Crime No.236 of 2023. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner along with other accused came into the defacto complainant's front of the house and trespassed the defacto complainant premises and damages the house hold articles, abused and assaulted him with stick and wooden log and also threatened him. He would further submit that it is a case and a case in counter and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
