Crl.O.P.No.18665 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/A1 to A4, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 427, 506(ii) of I.P.C, in Crime No.252 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the de-facto complainant are family members and they are residing in undivided property for which beside of land tree was cutted by the petitioner. While the petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant and others. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are falsely implicated in this case. The petitioners and the de-facto complainant are family members and the tree was cutted with the permission of de-facto complainant. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, some quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant and the petitioners assaulted the de-facto complainant. There is no injury to the de-facto complainant. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also the fact that there is no injury to the de-facto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
