Crl.O.P.No.19311 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC, in Crime No.59 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported 1 unit of river sand by using tractor without any valid license or permit from the Government. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner has illegally transported 1 unit of river sand by using tractor. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. On considering the facts and circumstances and the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to the credit of to credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to the credit of to credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

9. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to make a non refundable deposit of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the credit
