Crl.O.P.No.18928 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/A5 to A7, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 352 and 506(i) of I.P.C, in Crime No.69 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 27.12.2022 the petitioners went to the de-facto complainant's shop which is located at down of the petitioner's house and threatening the de-facto complainant's parents questioned and abused in a filthy language and assaulted with bare hands and threatened the complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that there are totally 7 and another accused in the above case. The co-accused A1 to A4 are already arrested and enlarged on bail and no injury to the de-facto complainant. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and there is no injury to the de-facto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-IV, Vellore, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
