PRAYER: Contempt Petition filed under Section 11 of Contempt of Courts Act, 1971, praying to punish the respondent for his wilful disobeying the order of the Hon'ble High Court made in CMP No.17178 of 2023 in CRP No.2781 of 2023 dated 31.07.2023.

For Petitioners	: Mr.C.Vigneswaran for Mr.E.Balamurugan
For Respondent	: Mr.R.Y.George Williams

ORDER

Mr.C.Vigneswaran, learned counsel appearing for Mr.E.Balamurugan represents that the Contempt has been filed against an interim order, since the wife took possession of the property despite the order of stay. He brings to the notice of this Court that on 31.08.2023, the main revision itself was taken up and it was allowed. He further adds that the wife had entered the property but was subsequently turned out through due process of law.

2. Mr.R.Y.George Williams, learned counsel appearing for the respondent states that on coming to know the stay order, the wife, on her own, left the premises. Therefore, he adds that there is no cause of action for the contempt to be continued today.

3. The unanimity of the submissions seems to be that the wife is not in possession of the property today. The contempt is filed against an interim order and by virtue of the fact that the main Civil Revision Petition was allowed on 31.08.2023, it merges with the final order. With the wife having vacated the premises, nothing further remains to be tried in the contempt.

4. Accordingly, the contempt petition is closed.
