ORDER

This petition has been filed seeking to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.66 of 2020, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thriuvannamalai.

2. The grounds raised by the learned Counsel for the petitioner are all factual in nature and it requires appreciation of evidence and this Court cannot decide the same in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Criminal Procedure Code. It is left open to the petitioner to raise all the grounds before the Court below and the same shall be considered on its own merits and in accordance with law. This Court is not inclined to interfere with the proceedings pending before the Court below.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the trial has already commenced and P.W.1 and P.W.2 have already been examined and the case is posted on 11.09.2023 for the examination of the other witnesses. This is yet another ground as to why this Court cannot entertain this Criminal Original Petition.

4. The learned Counsel for the petitioner requested this Court to dispense with the presence of the petitioner. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case, the presence of the petitioner is dispensed with and she shall be represented by a counsel, who shall cross examine the witnesses on the same day, they are examined in Chief. The petitioner shall be present before the Court below at the time of questioning under Section 313 Cr.P.C., and at the time of passing of the final judgment.

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed off with a direction to the Court below to complete the proceedings in C.C.No.66 of 2020 within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The trial shall be conducted on a day to day basis in accordance with the guidelines given by Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in Vinod Kumar Vs State of Punjab [2015 (1) MLJ (CrI) 288 SC]. If the petitioner adopts any dilatory tactics, it is open to the trial Court to insist upon the presence of the petitioner and remand her
