Crl.O.P.No.19142 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners/A1 to A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of I.P.C, in Crime No.133 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 25.05.2023, when the de-facto complainant stand in front of common well belonging to six family. There is a dispute between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant and the petitioner attacked the de-facto complainant and abused and threatened to life. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that one previous case is pending against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tharapuram, Tiruppur District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of
