Crl.O.P.No.19221 of 2023

WEB C RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324, 353 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.351 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner threw stones on the Government bus in which the defacto complainant was working as a conductor and when it was questioned by him, the petitioner abused and assaulted him with stones. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the name of the petitioner does not find place in the first information report. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner threw stones on the Government bus in which the defacto complainant was working as a conductor and when it was questioned by him, the petitioner abused and assaulted him with stones. He would further submit that no one has been injured in this case. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that no one has been injured in this case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
