Crl.O.P.No.19771 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioner/1st accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.344 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the de-facto complainant was sitting in a shop, the petitioner along with other accused persons abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the de-facto complainant was sitting in a shop, the petitioner along with other accused persons abused the de-facto complainant in a filthy language and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif and Judicial Magistrate Court, Ranipet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
