3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that due to financial dispute between the defacto complainant's son and the petitioner a false complaint has been foisted and the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent would submit that due to money dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant's son, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the defacto complainant's house and abused him in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate for the respondent.
