Crl.O.P.No.20020 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 324 of I.P.C & Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.325 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant and her family members and they sustained simple injury and abused with filthy language. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to wordy quarrel, a false complaint has been given against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners attacked the de-facto complainant and his family and sustained simple injury and the injury has been discharged from the hospital and the counter case is pending. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the substantial part of the investigation is over and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
