2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found in illegal possession of 60 litres of I.D Arrack. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that he is no way connected with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- as non- refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government and he is prepared to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has prepared to deposit Rs.10,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
