CrI.OP.No.20123 of 2023

2.It is the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner that deceased is petitioner's wife. Due to petty family quarrel, deceased committed suicide by self immolation. Petitioner is falsely implicated in this case. He is in judicial custody from 20.07.2023. Thus, he seeks bail for the petitioner.

3. In response, learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that petitioner and deceased got married fifteen years back and they have girl children. Petitioner had illicit intimacy with Samundeeswari for the reason that deceased and petitioner had no male child. Due to this illicit intimacy, there used to be frequent quarrel between deceased and petitioner. As a result, on 19.07.2023, deceased poured kerosene over her and set fire. Petitioner was responsible for the suicide of the deceased.

4.In the circumstances stated in the First Information Report, the fact that substantial part of investigation in this case might have been completed by this time and having regard to the duration of petitioner's judicial custody from 20.07.2023, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with conditions.
