Crl.O.P.No.21018 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 342, 447, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C, in Crime No.230 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant Selvam is that the accused prevented him and others from burying their relative in a burial ground and also assaulted them. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioners prevented the de-facto complainant and other from burying their relative in the burial ground and also they have assaulted the de-facto complainant and others. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side earlier anticipatory bail was granted by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.24205 of 2022 dated 11.10.2022, but the petitioners fails to execute the sureties. It is made clear that the petitioners shall execute the sureties on or before 27.10.2023, failing which, the anticipatory bail shall stand automatically dismissed. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pappireddipatti, Dharmapuri District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned
