The Petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the Respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 & 506 (ii) of IPC in Crime No.505 of 2023 on the file of the Respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the Defacto Complainant obtained loan for a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- from the first Petitioner and thereafter evade to repay the same. Due to which, wordy altercation arose between them and the Petitioners attacked the Defacto Complainant with hands and knife. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned Counsel for the Petitioners would submit that the Petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the Petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the Respondent would submit that the injured was already discharged from the hospital. He opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either sides and the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the Petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate II, Thirupathur, on condition that the Petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the Petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the Petitioners shall report before the Respondent Police, on everyday at 10.30 am for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required;

[c] the Petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the Petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
