The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 353 and 506(i) of I.P.C, in Crime No.190 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant is a Block Development Officer. On 17.08.2023, the de-facto complainant had gone to Municipality Elementary School for inspection regarding morning food scheme. On that time, the petitioners are also gone to the said spot. In the circumstance, the de-facto complainant questioned the petitioners that why you people are came to this place and also he had forced them to leave the said spot, then the petitioner left the spot. Thereafter, on 18.08.2023, the petitioners and unknown persons entered into de-facto complainant's office and abused him with filthy language and also threatened him. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are an innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that counter case is pending against the de-facto complainant in C.S.R.No.160 of 2023. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Mettur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
