of 2023 under Section 451 r/w. 457 Cr.P.C., before the Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai, seeking interim custody of the vehicle viz., JCB bearing registration No.TN 46 W 6656, which was seized in connection with Crime No.241/2023 by the respondent police and subsequently produced before the Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai. 5. In this back drop, it is relevant to refer a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai and others Vs. State of Gujarat reported in (2002) 10 SCC 283, in which it is held thus:

“In our view, whatever be the situation, it is of no use to keep such seized vehicles at the police stations for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate orders immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the said vehicles, if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of applications for return of such vehicles.

In case where the vehicle is not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by third person, then such vehicle may be ordered to be auctioned by the Court. If the said vehicle is insured with the insurance company, then insurance company be informed by the Court to take possession of the vehicle, which is not claimed by the owner or a third person. If insurance Company fails to take possession the vehicles may be sold as per the direction of the Court. The Court would pass such order within a period of six months from the date of production of the said vehicle before the Court. In any case, before handing over possession of such vehicles, appropriate photographs of the said vehicle should be taken and detailed panchanama should be prepared.”

6. It is true that keeping the vehicle idle in an open space, would definitely impair the value of the vehicle over a period of time. As such, considering the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court is inclined to grant interim custody of the vehicle to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision is allowed and the impugned order in Crl.M.P.No.3953 of 2023 dated 25.08.2023 passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai, is set aside and the interim custody of the vehicle is given to the petitioner on the following conditions :

- i. The petitioner shall prove his ownership of the vehicle by producing R.C.Book and other relevant records;
- ii. The R.C.Book shall be deposited in the Court and the Court shall issue a certificate in this regard;
- iii. The petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.1,00,000/-

(Rupees One lakhs Only) before the trial Court;
