ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.SUNDAR, J.,]

Captioned 'Habeas Corpus Petition' ['HCP' for the sake of brevity] has been filed by mother of detenu assailing a 'preventive detention order dated 14.09.2022 bearing No.119/BCDFGISSSV/2022' [hereinafter 'impugned detention order' for the sake of convenience and brevity]. To be noted, fourth respondent is the sponsoring authority and second respondent is the detaining authority as impugned detention order has been made by second respondent.

2. Impugned detention order has been made under 'The Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber law offenders, Drug-offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral traffic offenders, Sand-offenders, Sexual-offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act No.14 of 1982)' [hereinafter 'Act 14 of 1982' for the sake of convenience and clarity] on the premise that the detenu is a 'Goonda' within the meaning of Section 2(f) of Act 14 of 1982.

3. There are two adverse cases. The ground case which is the sole substratum of the impugned detention order is Crime No.450 of 2022 on the file of T-12 Poonamallee Police Station for alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 341, 302 of 'The Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860)' [hereinafter 'IPC' for the sake of convenience and clarity]. Owing to the nature of the challenge to the impugned detention order, it is not necessary to delve into the factual matrix or be detained further by facts.

4. Mr.V.Paarthiban, learned counsel representing counsel on record for petitioner and Mr.R.Muniyapparaj, learned State Additional Public Prosecutor assisted by Mr.M.Sylvester John, learned counsel, for all respondents are before us.

5. In the support affidavit qua captioned HCP, very many averments have been raised/urged. Be that as it may, in the hearing, Mr.V.Paarthiban, learned counsel appearing on behalf of counsel on record for petitioner posited his argument on one submission which found favour with us and that one submission turns on the subjective satisfaction arrived at by the detaining authority as regards the imminent possibility of the detenu being enlarged on bail. In this regard, learned counsel for petitioner took us through paragraph 4 of the grounds of detention and pointed out that subjective satisfaction as regards imminent possibility has been arrived at by the detaining authority by relying on what according to the detaining authority is the steps being taken by the 'relatives' of the detenu for filing bail application on behalf of the detenu. Learned counsel thereafter took us through the grounds of detention which has been served on the detenu and pointed out there is special report from the sponsoring authority at pages 249 and 250 of the booklet and that special report itself is dated 15.09.2022 whereas the impugned detention order is dated 14.09.2022. The simple submission of learned counsel for petitioner is, this is a clear case of non-application of mind and the impugned detention order is flawed as the 15.09.2022 special report obviously could not have been before the detaining authority on 14.09.2022. We have no difficulty in accepting this submission as it is clear as day light.

6. However, learned State Additional Public Prosecutor submitted to the contrary and he drew our attention to page No. 248 of the booklet where there is a 161(3) Cr.P.C. statement from the mother of the detenu and this statement is dated 14.09.2022. Learned State Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that it is quite possible to record 161(3) Cr.P.C. statement on 14.09.2022. In response to this, learned counsel for petitioner submitted that the impugned detention order does not talk about the statement from the mother of the detenu but it talks about the statement from the relatives. Be that as it may, there is one other point which weighed in our mind and that one other point is impugned preventive detention order has been served on the detenu at 16:50 hours on 14.09.2022. It is extremely unlikely that the statement recorded on 14.09.2022 could have been, in other words, a neatly calico bound booklet placed before the detaining authority on the same day. However, we do not propose to enter into this area of surmises and conjectures as the special report is as clear as day light.

7. In the light of the discussion and dispositive reasoning set out supra, we have no difficulty in coming to the conclusion that the impugned preventive detention order deserves to be dislodged.

8. Apropos, the sequitur is, captioned HCP is allowed. Impugned detention order dated 14.09.2022 bearing reference No.119/BCDFGISSSV/2022 made by the second respondent is set aside and the detenu Thiru.Surya, male, aged 23 years, son of Thiru.Baskar is directed to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in connection with any other case / cases. There shall be no order as to costs.
