(Judgment of the Court was made by R.SUBRAMANIAN, J.)

This very un-reasonable appeal has been filed by the mother of the child.

2.The father of the child sought for appointment as a guardian of the child, the Family Court upon consideration of the evidence on record, while negating the claim for guardianship has granted visitation rights, that too, for once a month on third Saturday for one hour.

3. We do not see any merit in the challenge except inflated ego of the mother of the child. After all, the father of the child has been permitted to be with his child once in a month for one hour. We cannot fault the Family Court and we should also point out that the father of the child has not chosen to challenge the order.

3. Hence, this civil miscellaneous appeal is dismissed. No costs.
